

For FEM students, there is no such thing as someone else's pain....

On March 22, a terrible tragedy occurred in the Moscow region, which claimed hundreds of innocent lives...., leaving no one indifferent.... And for the second day now, the world community has been mourning the victims of the terrorist attack.... All of Belarus mourns too! FEM students are grieving, for whom there is no other person's pain!

